Dear Mr Chow

Ferrari 330GTC Prototype

Please find enclosed a copy of the latest letter received from the vendor. I thought it would be in your best interest that I have someone check the car on your behalf, Nick Cartwright has agreed to go to Rome and do so, inclusive of airfare he would charge you about £1,500.

Simultaneously I have been doing more research on the car, it really is the actual 330GTC prototype, in fact it has been referred to as a "275GTC". Confidential sources at Ferrari have also confirmed without doubt that the car was owned by Ferrari for just over 2 years. This was before Mr Ferrari sold some of his shares to Fiat so although the car was registered to the Factory it was 100% his company at that time.

I think that once the car is in the hands of a new owner I will have a better chance to extract documentary evidence from my colleagues at the factory. One thing they did tell me was that the car was reconditioned and repainted at the end of 1966 before passing into private ownership.

I presume none of this affects your decision to proceed.

Best regards

Andrew Turner
