Dear Mr. _____ :

Congratulations on your decision to purchase the 1961 Porsche 356B Electric Sunroof Coupe. This letter will serve as acknowledgement of your deposit of $4,000 towards a total purchase price of $15,500, and will outline the terms of sale as agreed by you and

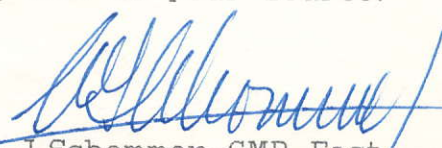

For your reference purposes, the Porsche you have contracted for is our stock number B-003, with VIN 114147.

We have agreed as follows:

1. The car will be painted with Ruby Red with Urethane Enamel.
2. Interior will be finished in Tan Vinyl with Tan carpets.
3. We will rechrome seat brackets and speaker covers.
4. We will install Panasonic AM/FM Cassette Radio.
5. We will adjust Electric Sunroof fit and operation.
6. Steering wheel will be painted and seat belts installed.
7. GMR will share the cost of shipping the Porsche from Phoenix to Oswego on a 50/50 basis.

With the additional capacity of our new facility in Phoenix, completion of your Porsche is scheduled for mid to late January, 1989. We would like to ask that an additional payment of $8,000 be made on or about January 1, 1988 and that a schedule for shipment be arranged by December 15, 1988. We can hold the car for you until Spring, however we would ask that final payment be made at the time the car is completed.

After you have had a chance to review this letter, please call if there is any misunderstanding or I have made any errors. We thank you for choosing GMR as your source.

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]:

We are in receipt of your check in the sum of $8000, representing the second payment on the 1961 Porsche 356B Sunroof. Total payments received to date are $12,000 towards a total purchase price of $15,500.

Thank you for your kind comments in your letter, and your offer to allow us to use the photos you will take of the Porsche after delivery.

Again, thanks for allowing us to do your restoration.

A.J. Schommer

Since starting our business in 1986, our intent has been to locate and purchase the best available rust-free 356 thru 356C restoration candidates with continuous Southwestern heritage.

Once acquired, we completely disassemble and strip exterior, interior, glass, and trim. All mechanicals are renewed to factory specifications. Exterior is repainted from bare metal with better than factory materials. New interior is installed, along with new rubber, trim, glass, tires and wheels.

Our goal is to produce the best 356 restorations for street use in the USA. Please call to discuss the Porsches listed or a special version built to your specifications.

These 356 and 911 series Porsche vehicles are all from Arizona or Southern California and are in process or available now.

Dear Mr. [redacted]:

The enclosed money order in the amount of $8000.<sup>00</sup> brings my present total deposit to $12000.<sup>00</sup>

Jim and I have been in phone contact since you last called me. Things seem to be going along very well. We have been in constant agreement about what is being done to the '61 sunroof coupe. The delivery time and shipping details are also in place.

Jim indicated that you would be sending the original California Black plate to me. I am interested in keeping this along with the very complete service records that Jim has in Phoenix.

If you need to contact me, M. - Thurs. eves. are the best time [redacted].

Since I am in the photography business, I plan to do some quality photo layouts with this car, and I will see that you receive some enlargements which you may use as you wish.

I also plan to attend a film conference for educators in late October of 1989 in Phoenix. This will give me a chance to see your new facility and reconnect with Jim.

Jun 2, 1989
Jim indicated that Rob Larson has been in contact with you. He is a real enthusiast (owns a speedster), and is looking for a quality B or C coupe. I told him about the car that I have contracted for, and will show it to him this Spring.

My best wishes and good luck to both of you for this new year as you expand!
