

SPOTLIGHTING PIONEERS OF STOCK CAR RACING

Antique autos participate in annual beach parade like this 1928 Ford Model A.

Living Legend Frank "Rebel" Mundy. Frank participated in first NASCAR organizational meeting held in Daytona Beach, Dec. 1947

Uncle Sam leads annual beach parade of old race cars, antique autos and racing pioneers.

George Gray, 1934 Ford Sprint

Fox TV producers film Russ Branick's Harry Hyde race car. Keri Kloster waves flag.

Living Legends of Auto Racing honors racers from everywhere.

2001 Virginia-Carolina early dirt racers reunion.

Ray Fox and son David Fox at museum with hood from Daytona International Speedway record breaking 180 mph car they built.

Racing items donated for annual club charity auction.

2001 Dawsonville Georgia Moonshine Festival Reunion.

Fox TV filmed club member cars on beach at dawn for opening sequence of 2002 Daytona 500 broadcast.

Louise Smith, first lady of racing.

1996 Last North Wilkesboro, North Carolina Race