ASTON MARTIN LAGONDA LIMITED (hereinafter called 'the Company') gives the warranty for each new Aston Martin and Lagonda motor car or chassis and each replacement car or assembly manufactured or supplied by the Company to be free from defects in material or workmanship under normal use and service for the applicable warranty period mentioned below.

The warranty period for a new motor car or chassis is one year after delivery, to the first registered owner.

The warranty period for replacement parts and assemblies is 90 days after delivery of such parts to the original purchaser for use, or until the expiry of the warranty period for the chassis and body, whichever is the longer.

Transfer of the warranty to a subsequent owner within the initial one year period is permitted, and notification of this transfer should be given to the Service Manager of the Company.

Franchise Holders and/or Approved Repairers who are appointed and receive full technical support from the Company, provide facilities for the servicing and repair of Aston Martin Lagonda motor cars. Only such Franchise Holders or Approved Repairers will, under the terms of this warranty, repair, replace, or readjust, free of charge to the owner, any part or assembly which is proved to the Company's satisfaction to show a defect in either materials or workmanship within the applicable period. Any work carried out either wholly or in part by other persons or organisations whether a principal or agent, shall not be covered by the terms of this warranty.

Should a defect occur within the applicable period then a Franchise Holder or the Service Department at Aston Martin Lagonda Limited should be consulted immediately and arrangements made with him for the delivery of the motor car or part to his premises.

LIMITATIONS: The benefit of this Warranty is subject to the following terms and conditions:

- 1 No part shall have been fitted other than the Company's approved parts.
- 2 The repair or replacement must not be due as a result of fair wear and tear, misuse or negligence.
- 3 The Aston Martin or Lagonda car shall not have been used, maintained, altered, repaired or adjusted otherwise than in accordance with the instructions given in the proper technical publications, subject to accident damage nor in a manner which, in the opinion of the Company, would prejudice the reliability of the Aston Martin or Lagonda motor car.
- 4 The Company's written maintenance schedule should have been carried out at the intervals prescribed therein.
- 5 The Aston Martin or Lagonda motor car or chassis have not taken part in any road or track racing events, reliability trials, hill-climbing or speed tests or other competitions of a similar nature, and shall not have been used for commercial service or hire except with the written consent of the Company.
- 6 The Aston Martin or Lagonda motor car or chassis or parts have not been altered or modified or the manufacturer's identification number or mark have been changed or removed.
- 7 The Aston Martin or Lagonda motor car shall not at any time have been used for the purpose of towing caravans or trailers.
- 8 The part or assembly shall not have been fitted other than by the Company or its Franchise Holders.

The owner is responsible for the costs of maintenance service, seasonal schedules and routine adjustments and all replacement parts and other materials used in these schedules and adjustments.

This warranty is issued to the first owner of the motor car or chassis and may be transferred to subsequent owners by application through a Franchise Holder or the Manager, Service Department, Aston Martin Lagonda Limited, but the terms of warranty in no way affects the rights derived by the owner from his contract with the person selling the Company's products.

The construction and legal effect of this Warranty shall be determined in accordance with the Laws of England. All disputes arising out of this Warranty shall be referred to arbitration in London, England, under the Provisions of Arbitration Act, 1950, or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof.
